A Good Suggestion.

EDITOR TIMES-Why do not tailors or other persons make pants and coats of linen or thing the light weight cassimere, for boys from 4 to 14 years of age? If a mother of boys wishes to get a thin coat or a pair of pants for one or more of her boys, she must buy a complete suit of vest, coat and pants, or have them the made at home, which is not always convenient. I do not see why these garments should not be made and sold separately at a reasonable price in the dry goods stores. It would add much to the comfort of those who have boys to clothe to know that any time the second beautiful of the comfort of those who have boys to clothe to know that any time the second beautiful of the comfort of those who have boys to clothe to know that any time the second beautiful of the second beaut persons make pants and coats of linen or reasonable price in the dry goods stores.
